

300 150 0 300 Feet

BALLAHACK PRESERVE

The 11-acre Ballahack Preserve Trail is best accessed at the dead end of the Ballahack Road Extension. There is evidence of an old woods road that serves as the trail. It traverses a varied terrain and habitats of low wet sites and upland hardwoods, some very steep inclines and also level ground. A healthy understory of mountain laurel flowers in mid-June, and in winter, there are lovely views of Bashan Lake